DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claim 1-30,35-37, and 49, drawn to an inhaler, classified in class 128, subclass 200.21
- II. Claims 31-33, drawn to a spacer, classified in class 128, subclass 203.19.
- III. Claims 38-48, classified in class 128 subclass 200.22

The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

1. Inventions I & III and II & III the inhaler/spacer and method of introducing a drug into an inhaler are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the method claims indicate steps that are not distinct to the products as claimed. The method can be carried out by an inhaler other than the one specified in the claims. If the applicant elects the invention of Group I, a further election of species is required.

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because an inhaler can be used without a spacer or with a materially different spacer. The subcombination has separate utility such as being used in spacing out tubing of a ventilator device or as a spacing in a respiratory mask.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. In the instant case, the spacer is a distinct from an inhaler and can be used in various embodiments of an inhaler. Moreover it is possible that the inhaler can be used without the assistance of specified spacer. The applicant must elect invention I or invention II. All other claims will be withdrawn from examination.

If the applicant chooses invention I an addition election must be made.

2. Species A: claims 1-30

Art Unit: 3772

Furthermore, if applicant chooses to elect species A, an election of subspecies is required. Distinct sub-species are as follows:

Sub-species (a), claims 1,2

Sub-species (b), claims 1,3-5 includes a piston

Sub-species (c), claims 1,6, means to deliver gas occurs due to specially shaped piston

Sub-species (d), claims 1, 7-10, means to deliver gas occurs due to different gas

Sub-species (e), claims 1,11-17 storage section the shape of a drum, 2nd chamber contains one duct

Sub-species (f), claims 1,18-21 second chamber includes hollow spindle

Sub-species (g), claims 1,22-28, includes spacer

Sub-species (h), claims 1, 29,30, includes a diffuser

Claim 1 is generic to the sub-species.

Species B: claims 35-37

Species C: claim 49

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 49 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

3. If the applicant chooses Species A, a further election would be required of the applicant to elect the sub-species.

Conclusion

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
